Dear Dr. Carino:

Greetings from the Aloysian Professional Community!

Republic Act No. 10912 or the "CPD Act of 2016" was enacted to promote and upgrade the practice of the professions in the country and institute measures that will continuously improve the competence of the professionals in accordance with the international standards of practice, thereby, ensuring their contribution in uplifting the general welfare, economic growth, and development of the nation.

Hence, to support this government's mandate, the Aloysian Publications is offering Continuing Professional Development (CPD) seminars for teachers which aim to reinforce existing skills, as well as learning new ones that aren't covered during teachers' training, and to build on their interaction skills and learn strategies for helping learners to achieve their full potential.
