SUBJECT : TRANSMITTAL MEMO: GLOBAL STUDENT PRIZE

DATE : 13 APRIL 2021

This is in reference to the recently inaugurated Chegg.org Global Student Prize (GSP) which was launched by The Varkey Foundation this year. GSP is a US$50,000 sister award to the Global Teacher Prize (GTP) which aims to highlight the efforts of extraordinary students throughout the world that are making a real impact on learning, the lives of their peers and on society beyond. Chegg.org is the impact, advocacy, and research arm of Chegg: addressing the issues facing the modern student.

Today's students are burdened with so many challenges: living through the greatest disruption to learning in history, shouldering high levels personal debt, and navigating a job market that is undergoing rapid transformation in the midst of an economic crisis. But as the burden of the past falls on students' shoulders, they have the power to change the world and build their future.

The deadline for all applications is 30 April 2021.

Kindly see the published DepEd Advisory Series 2021 No. 025 on the Global Student Prize for more information: <https://www.deped.gov.ph/2021/04/12/april-12-2021-da-025-s-2021-2021-global-student-prize-of-the-varkey-foundation/>

0107 - April 1, 2021

EARTH DAY CELEBRATION CUM YES-O ASSEMBLY
20-22 April 2021

Theme: “PINASiglang Bansa (Restore Our Earth)”

I. Rationale

Earth Day Network (EDN), the organizing body for Earth Day worldwide, announced that the theme of Earth Day 2021 is “Restore Our Earth.” The theme is based on the emerging concept that rejects the idea that our only options to save the planet are to mitigate or adapt to the impacts of climate change and other environmental damage. Scientists, non-governmental organizations (NGOs), businesses, and governments worldwide are now looking at natural system processes and emerging green technologies to restore the world’s ecosystems and forests, conserve and rebuild soils, improve farming practices, restore wildlife populations, and rid the world’s oceans of plastics.

While the world awaits for global political and business leaders to take decisive action to reduce carbon emissions, natural processes including reforestation and soil conservation can store massive amounts of carbon while restoring biodiversity, clean water and air, and rebalancing ecological systems. Restoration is pragmatic and necessary to reduce climate change.

The restoration also brings hope which is important in the age of COVID-19. The impacts of the pandemic have illustrated with painful clarity that the planet faces two crises and they are connected: global environmental degradation and its connection to health. Deforestation, wildlife trade, air and water pollution, human diets, climate change, and other issues have all fed into a breakdown of our natural systems, leading to new and fatal diseases, such as the current pandemic, and a breakdown of the global economy.¹

In this connection, the Department of Education (DepEd), through the Bureau of Learner Support Services – Youth Formation Division (BLSS-YFD) and Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Service (DRRMS) in partnership with DepEd Region IV-A and Schools Division Office (SDO) of Dasmariñas City with the support of the Public Affairs Service (PAS), will conduct a virtual 3-day interactive Earth Day Celebration. This is in coordination with the Climate Change Commission (CCC) and its partners.

Concept Note
Earth Day 2021: “PINASiglang Mundo (Restore our Earth)”
(As of 19 March, 2021)

#RestoreOurEarth #WalangPlastikan #PlasticFreePH #EarthDay2021

Background

This April 22 is the 51st anniversary of the Earth Day celebration, which aims to raise awareness and drive support for planetary protection and action. More than one billion people from over 190 countries celebrate the event. For this year, the theme “Restore Our Earth” underscores the need to address the global climate crisis and its resulting effects on our ecosystems, biodiversity, food and water, public health, and our industries and communities.

The theme finds support in the United Nations’ declaration of the years 2011 to 2030 as the “UN Decade on Ecosystem Restoration,” which also emphasizes the year 2030 as the deadline for the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), as well as the year the scientific community defined as the closing of opportunity to limit global warming at 1.5 degrees Celsius as prescribed in the Paris Agreement and the threshold for vulnerable countries to “survive and thrive”.

As the world continues to contend with the crippling COVID-19 pandemic amid a climate crisis, the need to rethink our development approaches, look far beyond our horizons, and incorporate sustainability principles in our national strategies and plans has never been more urgent. Both nature and current technologies already offer solutions to address these growing challenges and threats, but humanity needs the will to actually decide, implement, and ensure that these changes will safeguard our planet for future generations.

This Concept Note serves to support this global campaign and localize it in the Philippine context. This note proposes to highlight the pending legislation and active international and local campaigns to ban single-use plastics (SUPs) as the major advocacy that can maximize and deepen this year’s celebration of the Earth Day event.

This Note also includes a matrix of possible engagements with other government agencies, the private sector, civil society organizations, and other stakeholders that could be implemented prior, during, and after the Earth Day event, as well as an indicative calendar for these initiatives.

Objectives

- To gather stakeholders and rally support nationwide in this year’s celebration of Earth Day and related events through a multi-sector platform or alliance
- To consolidate efforts from as many stakeholders as possible in the advocacy to ban single-use plastics, promote sustainable consumption and production, and pursue ecosystem restoration (and related initiatives)

- To mobilize support from the grassroots to the national level, that will provide momentum to current discussions in the Senate and House of Representatives on the bill to ban single-use plastics nationwide and other bills relating to ecosystems restoration and climate action.

BACKGROUND

In line with this year's celebration of the 51st anniversary of Earth Day, various agencies and organizations from the public, private, and civil society sectors have partnered to feature initiatives that protect the planet and support the call for a healthier and more resilient planet.

This year's theme of "Restore Our Earth" underscores the need to address the global climate crisis and its resulting effects on our ecosystems, biodiversity, food and water, public health, and our industries and communities. The localized theme of "PINASiglang Mundo" will also highlight pending legislation and campaigns to ban single-use plastics (SUPs) to help address the country's growing problem on plastic pollution and its impacts on public health, ecosystems, and climate.

This guide serves to help craft Earth Day pledges from national and local leaders, policymakers, personalities, and stakeholders from various sectors to rally support and bolster the call for planetary protection and action from across all levels of the society.

These pledges will be featured in the Earth Day 2021 webcast and related events by the Climate Change Commission (CCC), The Climate Reality Project Philippines, and partner organizations.

MESSAGE GUIDE

na paigtingin pa lalo ang aming inisyatibo para sa seguridad ng ating kababayan sa gitna nitong malawakang krisis sa COVID-19 at climate change.”

For local government units:

“Our locality has issued an ordinance that would regulate the use of single-use plastics. We have encouraged our citizens to use bayongs, eco-bags, and paper bags, as well as to bring their own food containers, when going to public markets and groceries. We commit to ensuring that no single-use plastic ends up in our seas or clogging up our waterways. We support and pledge for a healthier and more sustainable Philippines and planet!”

“Kami sa [LOCALITY] ay sumusuporta sa agarang aksyon para sa ating kapiligiran, mundo at sa lahat ng nabubuhay dito. Ako at ang aming lungsod ay tumataya para sa mas PINASiglang Mundo at kinabukasan nating lahat.”

For civil society organizations (such as environmental and climate organizations, women and children’s groups, and advocacy groups):

“Our organization commits to strengthening our partnerships with communities in our fight against plastic pollution, environmental degradation, and climate change. We hope to share more stories, experiences, and best practices and to bring them at the national level, so our leaders, other cities, local governments, and communities could study and see how these can be adopted or replicated in their own localities.”

“Naging positibo ang aming karanasan sa komunidad ng San Rafael, kung saan nag-conduct kami ng clean-up drives at educational campaigns tungkol sa epekto ng plastic sa ating karagatan at kapaligiran, maging sa ating klima. Ngayon, with support from the local government unit at iba pang partners, nakapagtaguyod na sila ng mga recovery, recycling, at upcycling facilities na naging kabuhayan na rin ng ibang miyembro. Layon namin na palawakin pa ang mga komunidad na maaari namin matulungan para sa mas sustainable na pamumuhay.”

From the private sector (corporations, businesses, and industries) and social enterprises:

“We are aware of how much our company is affecting our environment, and we really are striving to minimize these impacts by supporting more environment-friendly packaging in our products, advancing research on more sustainable tools and technologies, and integrating sustainability in our business operations. MESSAGE GUIDE

“Nagsimula na kami ng gumamit ng mas environment-friendly packaging sa aming produkto at i-avoid ang single-use plastics as much as possible. Patuloy din po kami sa pag-research and pag-implement ng mas sustainable na teknolohiya at approaches sa aming operasyon. Nakikiisa kami sa panawagan para sa mas masigla at mas matatag na bansa at planeta.”

From the academic community:

“We recognize the need of constantly studying and researching scientific advancements and finding viable solutions that could really help our country and the planet to address our issues on plastic pollution, environmental degradation, and climate change. I pledge to utilize science and expertise on my field to support our goals for a healthier and more sustainable country and planet.”

“Bilang guro, layunin ko ang ituro sa ating kabataan ang wastong pamamaraan ng pakikitungo sa kapwa at sa ating kapaligiran. Sa aming paaralan, itinuturo namin sa aming mga estudyante ang tamang pagtapon ng basura at ang importansya ng pag-segregate at pag-recycle. Layon namin na palawigin pa ang partisipasyon ng kabataan sa paglinis ng ating pamayanan at pagprotekta sa ating kapaligiran.”

From the youth:

“The youth have a much higher stake in saving our planet Earth, our common home. It will be massive problem for us and future generations if we do not address our problems on plastics, environmental health, and climate change now. I pledge to continue supporting the call for more effective policies and measures, as well as being part and taking initiative in this movement towards sustainability and resilience.”

“Kaming kabataan ay nakikiisa sa malawakang panawagan para sa pagkalinga at pagprotekta ng ating planeta. Hindi basurahan ang ating mga ilog, dagat, at kapaligiran para basta-basta lang tapunan ng plastik at kung anu-ano pa. Kung hindi natin lulunasan ngayon, lalo pa itong lalala. Kailangan ng mas agarang aksyon para sa mas masigla at mas matatag na bansa at planeta.”

From TV, film, music, and social media personalities:

“We are the cause of these problems, and we too shall resolve them. We all have a role to play in addressing these issues and preventing any more problems that could harm our people, environment, and planet.”

“Tayo ang puminsala, tayo rin ang lulunas. Ako’y naniniwala na kaya nating malunasan ang ating sakit sa single-use plastics at iwasto ang ating pakikitungo sa ating kapaligiran. Lahat tayo ay may responsibilidad sa pagprotekta sa ating planeta.”

- End by delivering the Earth Day tagline.

“Together, let’s restore our Earth. Sama-sama, walang plastikan, tungo sa plastic-free Philippines at mas PINASiglang Mundo!”
