Subject: Request Assistance to Share Information - the 9th AISOFOLL

SEAMEO QITEP in Language (SEAQIL) has a mandate to improve the quality of language teachers and education personnel within Southeast Asia region. SEAQIL consistently organises various programmes in line with the mandate; an annual international symposium is one of them. Our International Symposium of Foreign Language Learning (AISOFOLL) serves as a platform for discussion on current trends in language education.

This year, we are going to hold our 9th AISOFOLL on 17-18 October 2018 at Atria Hotel Gading Serpong, South Tangerang, Indonesia. We invite language teachers, education practitioners and researchers (from within and beyond Southeast Asia) to present papers, share good practices and discuss all matters related to this year's theme: "Bringing Multiliteracies to Language Teaching".

With this regards, we would like to ask your kind assistance in publishing the enclosed leaflet on the ministry's official website. We would also highly appreciate it if you could disseminate the information to language teachers and education practitioners in your respective country.

Kindly email Ms Hasanatul Hamidah or Ms Rina Dwiyana at aisofoll@gmail.com should you need further information on the symposium.

Thank you very much for your kind assistance and attention.

Yours sincerely,

Bambang Indrayanto
Director

CALL FOR PAPERS

RATIONALE

SEAMEO QITEP in Language (SEAQIL) has a mandate to improve the quality of teachers and education personnel in language area. SEAQIL holds various programmes in accordance with the mandate and the top priority is one of them. Since 2010, SEAQIL has conducted a scientific forum called Annual International Symposium on Foreign Language Learning (AISOFO). SEAQIL aims to provide a platform for teachers, language researchers, practitioners and researchers to present their research results, best practices or ideas on their current language education with the aim to disseminate it in the large scale the world.

This year, SEAQIL takes a theme "Multiliteracies in Language Teaching as the Answer to the 21st Century". Multiliteracies is the ability to understand and create meaning through the use of multiple modes of communication (text, audio, video, etc.) and to use these modes to enhance learning and teaching. This is a very important skill in the 21st century.
