Good Governance & Capacity Building for Effective Delivery of Services

The Context:

While lack of funds is often discussed as the main constraint for the poor state of public services mainly in developing and industrializing countries, international experience suggests that more often than not inadequate capacity in effective leadership, planning and management to build institutional capacity to mobilize resources for formulation and implementation of good programmes and projects are the main factors.

Capacity building requires the development of human resources, the establishment of well-functioning organisations within a suitable framework and supportive socio-political environment for improving the performance of institutions and personnels.

CBN programmes maintain a strong emphasis on motivating respected participants to build confidence in themselves and their ability to perform better in their respective fields, through classroom presentations, discussions and field visits to view good practice. The programme continuously highlights good leadership, sound planning and effective management as important factors for success. The programme does not only aim at adding to participants knowledge and skills but also focuses on inspiring them to improve their performance back home.

This programme specifically designed for mid to high level Government and Semi Government officials, Board Members, Administrators, Public Utility Providers, Bilateral & Multilateral funding agencies and HRD Managers. The programme is also very relevant to elected representatives and staff of parliaments / legislatures as well.
