Relatively, we are honored to invite you to join us in the affair together with three (3) of your staff who have been graciously assisting us in the course of this competition. As partners in health, we would be delighted to have you with us in this engagement as we move towards informing our students and the community about the value of the National Health Insurance Program.

Finally, we earnestly request that you deliver a message on this occasion highlighting our partnership as we pursue better health education for our students in the Cordillera Administrative Region. Please see attached draft flow of the program for your reference and information.
