2023 INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH CONFERENCE, TRAINING WORKSHOPS AND BIENNIAL CONVENTION

The National Organization of Science Teachers and Educators (NOSTE), a national organization that aims to provide professional development opportunities to teachers in basic and higher education engaged in teaching, research, and extension.

This year, the organization in partnership with Central Luzon State University will be conducting the conference on September 22-24, 2023 in a hybrid set-up (virtually through Zoom and face to face in STI West Negros University, Bacolod City) with the theme "Science as a Tool for Teaching Numeracy and Literacy".

The conference aims to (1) explore science as a tool for teaching numeracy and literacy; (2) help teachers and educators in scientific writing and communication; (3) develop the capability of the participants in the cross-disciplinary instructional approaches for science literacy; (4) acquaint the teachers and educators with different learning resources and innovations for science and mathematics education; and (5) serve as a venue for the participants to share their research, including but not limited to multilingualism on science literacy and numeracy skills, assessment of and evaluation of literacy and numeracy skills in science education, science investigative research, action research in science and mathematics education, and among many others.

The target participants are educators in basic and higher education, administrators, researchers as well as students.

Participation of the interested participants is personal and shall subject to the no-disruption-of classes policy stipulated in DepED Order No. 9, s. 2005 titled: "Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time-On-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith".
