THEME: Weaving the Performing Arts and Humanistic Buddhism through Liveness and Ephemerality

The conference is GMC's 3rd Alaya edition, and the first conference held at our new campus. The conference is anchored on Guang Ming College's unique paradigm of teaching arts and Humanistic Buddhism values to talented Filipinos all over the country. In the way that arts have the capacity to initiate and inspire social transformation for a better world, Humanistic Buddhism teaches all to be compassionate and treat all human beings equally. The practice of both means a pedagogy of the arts that not only hones skill and technique, but also forms the values of good thought, words, and actions within each artist.

The 3-day conference program includes keynote presentations, paper presentations by the school and partner institutions, three arts workshops, and two cultural shows.

REGISTRATION FEE: Php 10,000.00

Inclusive of:

- Conference Attendance (workshop, keynotes and paper presentation)
- Conference Packet
- Accommodation at Tegaytay
- Food and Snacks
- Performances
- Participation Certificate
