SUBJECT: INVENTORY OF RECORDS AND UPDATING OF DEPED RECORDS DISPOSITION SCHEDULE (RDS)

DATE : September 20, 2023

The RDS of the Department of Education was created and approved by the National Archives of the Philippines (NAP) on April 19, 2010, in compliance with Republic Act 9470 entitled "An Act to strengthen the system of management and administration of archival records, establishing for the purpose the National Archives of the Philippines, and for other purposes", specifically, General Circular No. 1, dated January 20, 2009, which mandates each government agency to establish its own Records Disposition Schedule (RDS).

Records Disposition Schedule is a listing of records series by organization showing for each record series the period of time it is to remain in the office area, in the storage area, and its preservation or destruction. It covers the Agency's substantive records and those records not included in the General Records Disposition Schedule (GRDS) issued by NAP. The GRDS is a listing of records common to all government agencies as determined by the NAP. Thus, RDS serves as a guide in the disposition of records, the systematic transfer of non-current records from an office to any records storage area, the identification and preservation of permanent records, as well as the outright destruction of records that are no longer of value to the Department.

Retention Period, on the other hand, is an important component of decisions on the disposal of records since it determines the specific period of time, as established and approved by the NAP, as the life span of records, after which they are deemed ready for permanent storage or destruction.

There is an imperative need to make the DepEd-RDS updated and necessitated by substantial organizational and policy shifts and changes in its structure since CY 2010. Hence, the following necessary steps must be undertaken by DepEd.

1. Conduct of the inventory of records in offices in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by NAP;
2. Review the DepEd Records Disposition Schedule;
3. Revisit the retention period based on the value and necessity of records;
4. Recommend approval to the Management of the results of actions taken on items 1, 2, and 3 hereof; and
5. Submit to NAP for its evaluation and approval of the updated DepEd RDS.

In view of the foregoing, the Administrative Service-Records Division will conduct series of activities to update the DepEd Records Disposition Schedule (RDS).
