REGIONAL MEMORANDUM

NO. 154-2023

SURVEY FOR THE CONDUCT OF THE 2023 TEACHERS' CONGRESS

To: All Schools Division Superintendents
All Others Concerned

1. This Office, through the National Educators Academy of the Philippines in the Region (NEAPR) shall lead the design of a Professional Development (PD) activity for the 2023 Teacher's Congress.
2. The congress has the main goal to provide a PD for teachers aligned with the new education agenda with the following specific objectives:
  - a. Provide updates on current trends and priority programs of the Curriculum and Teaching (CT) Strand anchored on the MATATAG education agenda;
  - b. Update teachers on remote learning, innovative, responsive and inclusive approaches responsive to the PPST; and
  - c. Capacitate school heads on applicable school management interventions that are appropriate to the context of their teachers and learners responsive to the PPSSH.
3. Target participants are teachers and school heads that fit either of the following criteria:
  - a. Currently assigned in schools situated in isolated and/or disadvantaged areas; or
  - b. Have minimal participation (0-3 times) in any regional/ national training or scholarship from SY 2020 to 2023.
4. To effectively determine and prioritize topics for target participants, SDOs shall assist teachers and school heads to answer the survey form via <https://tinyurl.com/CARcongress> before April 7, 2023.
5. Final list of participants and other congress details shall be released in succeeding memoranda.
6. For inquiries and clarifications, please contact NEAPR through Chief Education Supervisor, NEAP-CAR OIC Jennifer Ande at 09190073814.
7. Immediate and widest dissemination of this Memorandum is directed.
