MODULE-MAKING ON TEACHING PSYCHOLOGICAL, MENTAL HEALTH, AND RESILIENCE TO BE DELIVERED THROUGH MULTIPLE MODALITIES

1. As contained in DepEd Order No. 007, s. 2020, "School Calendar and Activities for School Year 2020-2021, Enclosure No. 2, Activities for August 17-22, 2020 on Mental Health and Psychological Support", shall be conducted before the start of the formal opening of classes on August 24, 2020.
2. Thus, in support of the above-mentioned DepEd Order and in alleviation of the anxieties and varied experiences brought about by COVID-19 pandemic that affect every one's way of life and emotional strength, the DepEd-CAR through the CLMD, will conduct a guided workshop on module-making for identified teachers.
3. The general aim of this activity is to ensure that teachers will be well-prepared to face the challenges brought by this pandemic and willing to adopt and embrace the multiple teaching-learning modalities so all learners will be able to access quality education as we transition to the new normal. Moreover, teachers are expected to continue doing their functions as required of them to deliver quality education as they apply inputs gained in psychology, mental health and resiliency. Specifically, the activity shall:
 - a. provide guidance to all teachers in preparing the learners for the new normal.
 - b. ensure the well-being of all learners and parents with utmost consideration of their psychological, mental and emotional status.
 - c. give assistance to teachers and learners with traumatic experiences relative to COVID- 19, so they can be redirected to focus on expected tasks.
